KEY RISKS

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT?

The value of the product may rise or fall. These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment. Past performance figures are not necessarily a guide to future performance. Investment in the Fund is designed to produce returns over the long term and is not suitable for short term speculation. Some of the key risks associated with the Fund are described below.

Refer to Section 9 on page 14 of the Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.

Market & Credit Risks

•You are exposed to market risks in the Asia Pacific region

Prices of securities and derivatives may go up or come down in response to changes in economic conditions, market conditions, interest rates and perception of the securities, which in turn may cause the prices of the Units in the Fund to rise or fall.

•You are exposed to credit risks

The Fund may invest in debt obligations. The Fund may suffer a loss of interest or principal on any of its holdings of such debt if the issuer of the debt obligation defaults on the payments of interest or principal. The Fund may be exposed to credit risk of counterparties with whom it trades in certain countries which may result in the loss of capital.

•You are exposed to foreign investment risks

The Fund may invest in markets which provide for the freedom of nationalisation and expropriation; such freedom may be curtailed unexpectedly upon a change of government or expropriation policy.

Refer to Section 9 on page 14 of the Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.

Liquidity Risks

•The Fund is not listed and you can redeem only on Dealing Dates

- There is no secondary market for the Fund. All redemption requests should be made to the Manager.
- The Manager may, with the approval of the Trustee, suspend the issue, cancellation and realisation of Units during certain circumstances specified in the Prospectus and Trust Deed.

Refer to Sections 12 and 15 on pages 21 and 24 respectively of the Prospectus for further information on realisation and suspension of dealings of the product.

Product-Specific Risks

•You are exposed to currency risks

Investments by the Fund may be made in a variety of currencies, whereas the NAV of the Fund will be computed in its SGD base currency. The NAV per Unit of the USD Class is also converted from the NAV per Unit of the SGD Class at the prevailing foreign exchange rate. The value of the Fund and the NAV per Unit may be affected favorably or unfavorably by currency exchange rates.

• You are exposed to emerging market risks

Investments in Asian and smaller emerging markets are often more volatile and less liquid than those in more developed countries.

Refer to Section 9 on page 14 of the Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.

•You are exposed to political and repatriation risks

Investments in certain countries may be adversely affected by requirements for approvals, which may be delayed or denied, by restrictions on investment and repatriation of investment proceeds, and by changes in government policies, regulation, and taxation.

•You are exposed to derivatives risks

The Manager may use financial derivative instruments, including futures, options, warrants, forwards, contracts for differences, extended settlement contracts, swaps or swap options for the purpose of hedging existing positions in a portfolio and/or efficient portfolio management. The use of derivatives may negatively impact the value of the Fund and the Fund may suffer greater losses than if the Fund had not used derivatives. At the worst case, investors may lose all their funds invested if the Fund is fully exposed to derivative positions that move against the Manager’s judgment.

•You are exposed to securities lending or repurchase transaction risks

The Fund may carry out securities lending and repurchase transactions for the sole purpose of efficient portfolio management. Securities lending and repurchase transactions involve counterparty risk/credit risk, liquidity risk, sufficiency of collateral risk, collateral investment risk, delivery risk and operational risk.

HOW CAN YOU EXIT FROM THIS INVESTMENT AND WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND COSTS OF DOING SO?

- You may realise your Units on any Dealing Date subject to any applicable realisation fee.
- If the redemption form is received and accepted by the Manager by 3.30 p.m. Singapore time on a Dealing Date, your Unit is valued at the net asset value per Unit of the Fund as at the close of the Dealing Date less any realisation fee.
- You will normally receive the sale proceeds within 7 Business Days of receipt and acceptance of the realisation form by the Manager unless the realisation of Units has been suspended in accordance to Section 15 of the Prospectus.
- Numerical example of how the amount paid to an investor is calculated based on the sale of 1,000 Units and based on a notional realisation price of SGD1.050:

 $1000 \text{ Units} \times \text{SGD}1.050 = \text{SGD } 1,050 - \text{SGD } 0 = \text{SGD } 1,050$
 Your realisation request \times realisation price = Your realisation proceeds – Realisation Charge (currently nil) = Your net realisation proceeds
- You may switch your Units of the Fund with units of another fund managed by the Manager.
